ABOUT JREALITYG

JREALITYG is a recording artist known for such hits as "BIG DAWG" and "SAY TOO MUCH". He is an ambitious artist and a seasoned businessman, wielding hit-making requirements: rapper, writer, live entertainer, and entrepreneur. Cultivated by the southern roots his grandfather instilled in him, he has harnessed the ability to engulf his listeners via a thoroughly considerate approach to Hip-Hop's new wave of lyricism.

Influenced by some of the greats such as Jay Z, J. Cole, Rick Ross, Cyhi, and Shawn Jay, JRealityG will always be authentically grounded. The realism in his voice will take you on an expedition of culture, laughter, and a renewed desire for musical expressions.

JRealityG's impressive body of work features talents like Bigga Rankin, Kamillion, Blood Raw, D-Will, MGeezy, Mo Muzik, and Tik on the Beat.
